Korbel, Extra Dry $24

Veuve Cliquot Yellow Label $68.00

White Wines

Hess Collection Chardonnay (Monterey) $24

Has a delicate bouquet with aromas of Asian pear, and pink lady apple, with hints of lemon, mandarin orange, and pineapple. As well as Apple-citrus flavors, subtle and well integrated oak

Edna Valley Chardonnay (San Louis Obispo) $30

Extremely fruity in style, this is a full bodied, supple Chardonnay, with moderate richness, and aromas/flavors reminiscent of pineapple, lemon peel, roasted nut, and vanilla. Long aftertaste

"Chalk Hill" Rodney Strong, Chardonnay (Sonoma, CA) $34

Fragrant with honey and butter at first, then sweet aromas of pear linger. The palate finishes with a fresh kiwi note and a touch of almond.

Palo Alto Sauvignon Blanc (Chile) $24.00

New item from Banfi importers. Deliciously grassy and tropical. Definitely over delivers for the price point.

Sartori Pinot Grigio (Veneto, Italy) $20

Chrysanthemum, dandelion, sweet papaya and guava compose a nose that is almost too much of a good thing. On the palate, you get what you'd expect from $9 Pinot Grigio; crispness but not a lot of complexity.

Santa Margherita, Pinot Grigio (Alto Adige) $38

Bridlewood, Voignier (Santa Ynez) $28

The wine is showing excellent varietal fruit Characters. The color is pale, the palate is tight and flavorsome

August Kessler, Rheingau, Reisling (Germany) $22

Aromatic and generous, in a soft, off-dry style that brims with delicious exotic florals, honey, and spiciness.

Red Wines

Sterling, Merlot (California) $22

Flavors of plum and cherries, balanced with integrated light oak notes

Columbia Crest Grand Estates, Merlot (Washington) $22

Beautiful berry, cherry and delicate herbal flavors, picking up spicy smoky notes on the finish.

Beaulieu Vineyard "Coastal", Pinot Noir (California) $22

Deep black cherry scents with a hint of pepper and coffee, with lots of ripe fruit and a velvety round texture.

Batasioli Barbera D'Alba Sovrana (Italy) $26

Intense ruby red with garnet reflection. Delicate with a ripe fruit scent which harmonizes well with the aromatic notes from the wood.

Rosemount, Shiraz (Australia) $24

Polished and silky, featuring sweet blackberry and anise flavors, with a slight bite of pepper on the finish.

Francis Coppola "Claret", Cabernet Sauvignon (California) $30

Ripe, with black cherry, eucalyptus and earth flavors. The tannins are soft and chewy, lingering nicely on the finish.

B& G, Chateauneuf du Pape (France) $36

Beautiful ripeness marks this full-bodied red with accents of vanilla, plum and minerals.

Chateau St. Jean Cabernet Sauvignon $26

Reveals aromas and flavors of cedar, roasted herbs, black cherries, and spice. Medium-bodied with deep fruit, it is meant to be consumed over the next 4-5 years.

Chateau Le Prieure, Grand Cru Classe, Saint Emilion '05 (France) $65

The eagerly awaited 2006 St Emilion classification – the first for ten years –this wine received Third Classification

Chateau Leoville Poyferre, Saint Julien (France) $110

A lovely light ruby with gracefully herbal highlighted dark bitter cherry fruit. This is a wine that you can get your complete palate around before any one component overwhelms..- 2nd Grand Cru Classé
